Pike County plans annual Dogwood Fest

Like the trees that dot Pike County's hills, Pike County's annual Dogwood Festival is loaded with a good variety of music and entertainment this year.

Headlining the opening ceremonies on Thursday, April 24, will be country music's Southern Reign playing 7 to 9 p.m. at the Village Green stage and bluegrass group, The Poverty String Band 8 to 10 p.m. at the Middle Street stage.

A cyclists tour gets Saturday's events rolling. The bike tour begins at 8 a.m. at Piketon High School. Saturday is full of interesting events, from a chain-saw contest at 11:30 a.m. and the Dogwood Fiddle contest at 2:30 p.m. A pie-eating contest will begin at 3 p.m.

Southern Reign and Rock Bottom will play Saturday night beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday will be highlighted by an antique show and motorcycle show that begin in the morning. The grand parade kicks off at 2:30 p.m. Sunday and the Dogwood Banjo contest and drawing for the Dogwood quilt round out the day at 4 p.m. The Adelphi Band performs at 4 p.m. on the Village Green stage.
