MT. LOGAN CHAPTER HAS MEETING
The topic for discussion at the meeting of the Mt. Logan Chapter of the Delphian Society Wednesday afternoon was "The Peloponnesian War: Its Cause and Consequences," and the general theme was "Trade Rivalries Culminate in Militarism Which Destroys Trade, Progress and Democracy." In the absence of the president, Mrs. George Bayne, the vice-president, Mrs. James Hannan, presided at the meeting, and Mrs. Marshall Penton was leader.

The following text reports were given:

"The Beginning of Hostilities and the Policy of Pericles," Mrs. A. W. Hamill.

"Pericles' Speech," Mrs. Frank Marr.

"Events from 420 to 425 B. C.," Mrs. William Schenkel.

"The Sicilian Expedition," Mrs. Richard Schachne.

"Sparta and Thebes," Mrs. Walter Barrett.

"The Rise of Macedonia," Mrs. G. L. Weagley.

"Phillip of Macedonia," Mrs. Frank Long.

"Alexander the Great," Mrs. A. J. Larrick.

"Effects of Alexander's Conquests," Mrs. Marie Wollenweber.

A general discussion followed the text reports. Mrs. Walter Barrett is to be the leader at the next meeting of the chapter.

MODISTES TURN TO BRIGANDS IN SEARCH FOR NEW FASHIONS
London, April 1.—(By Associated Press)—The highwayman's cape worn by robbers in the time of King George I is coming into fashion this spring for women. Capes generally are in favor, but the style made famous by Dick Turpin, the Jesse James of England 200 years ago, and other notables in the robbing game have been particularly popular, most of them dipping far past the Chiffon is coming more and more into the limelight as the Spring season advances. The ensemble suit above effects an interesting combination of faille and chiffon. The former material makes the black coat, which is finished with puffs of black and sapphire chiffon at the sleeves. The straight little frock beneath is entirely of black and sapphire chiffon. It is almost sleeveless and has a square neckline. The hat is of black faille silk.

and his bride, the former Nancy Carnegie.

Leaving the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie yesterday afternoon the newlyweds were transported in a beribboned phaeton to a yacht that took them to Bernandina, Ga., where an automobile awaited them. They started north and their trip will extend abroad.
