CHRISTIAN WORKERS HAVE "HOBO" SOCIAL
Members of the Christian Workers of the Bridge Street Church of Christ enjoyed a hobo social on Friday evening, about fifty guests being present. The party went first to the home of Mrs. Dora Lee on Riverside street and here at the entrance to the home, they found a number of "hoboes" sitting on a log before a fire.

At the Lee home the guests bought sandwiches, going from there to the home of Mrs. Leighton Dotson, on East Main street, where pies were sold. The last station the company visited, was the home of Mrs. William Huff, on East Fifth street, and here they ate lunch and were served with hot chocolate and coffee.

There was a fishpond at the Huff home and here the party fished for gifts.

All came dressed as tramps and there were a number of funny costumes worn.

BORN—A SON

A son was born at the Chillicothe Hospital Friday to Mr. and Mrs. J. Caldwell, 208 South Hickory street.

AN APPEALING WINDOW DISPLAY

The scene depicts a Salvation Army lassie in a "home service" visit.

The display is one created to further interest in the Salvation Army Home Service campaign.
