 Cornet Solo—Marjorie Huff.
 Baritone Solo—Rudolph Grishheimer.
 Morning Prayer Tschakovsky
 (Old French Song)
 Echoes of the Volga Seredy
 The scenes pictured in this, another Russian Overture, to be played on the evening's program, are most cleverly introduced to give to the listener an enjoyable tone picture of characteristic elements of Russian life which are truly echoes of the Volga: Kaminskaja—Russian National Dance; cornet, On the Banks of the Volga; In The Garden or on the Street; The Jolly Chapp; Lonesome; The Merchant; A Peasant Walking; Rural Ballad; Cossack Dance; The Red Sarafan; Oh, Madam; Finale
 Cornet Duet—Marjorie Huff and Robert Smith.
 El Capitan Sousa
 This march, one of his most popular marches, is played with the thought and memory of John Philip Sousa's great contribution to the band as an artistic musical development.
 Tickets may be had at the high school office now or at the door of the concert auditorium in the high school. The concert will begin at 8:15 p. m.

JUNIOR MEETING.

The Junior Group of the Christian church, with their adult leader, Mrs. N. V. Blankenship, met at the home of Mrs. Meloti on Church street, Sunday evening, for their regular meeting. Madeline Coppel was the leader of the discussion and a very interesting program was presented. After hymns and prayer, the Scripture lesson was read by Betty Jane Shaw and Margaret Stone. Helen Collins read as a poem, the song, "I Would Be True", after which the group joined in singing. Robert Coppel recited a lovely poem, "I'm Glad Jesus Is My Friend." The adult leader gave a talk on the subject of the lesson, "What Kind of Boys and Girls Would Jesus Like to Have Us Be?"; closing with the story of Sir Galahad. The meeting closed with prayer and the benediction.
 The leader for next Sunday evening is Norma Jean Poe and the group will meet at the church at 8:30. All Juniors interested are cordially invited.
 Mrs. Meloti who is confined to her bed is very appreciative of the interest the Junior Group has taken in bringing these services to her. She was presented with a beautiful blooming plant by the boys and girls.
