William Lockwood Huff, Jr. Local Artist Bill Huff, 67, of Chillicothe, Ohio, died 4:00 a.m. Monday, May 8, 2006, at home. He was born April 2, 1939, in Chillicothe to the late William L. and Bessie Harrington Huff.

He was a self taught artist and painted for 40 years. In 2003 his painting of Adena's Thomas Worthington Home was chosen to grace the cover of the Chillicothe Phone Book. He has been represented by Lynn Berry of Picture This for 16 years Each morning for the past 40 years he rose at 4:00 a.m. to sketch or paint and listen to jazz. He painted from photographs and memory, and loved scouting out scenes to paint throughout Ross County. His own flower garden was a constant source of inspiration for cards he regularly sent to friends and family. In his prime he was quite the hooper. To quote from his favorite Chicago song: "This is only the beginning of what I want forever...only just a start..." He served in the U.S. Army.

He is survived by the mother of his children Darlene Huff, of Chillicothe, a son Will Huff, of Los Angeles, daughter Tracey (Ed) Huff-Locke and grandson Ian Wyatt Locke, all of Greensboro, North Carolina, brother, Larry Huff "Huffy" and sister, Susie Huff, both of Chillicothe. He attended the First Christian Church.

Services were entrusted to Ware Funeral Home of Chillicothe, Ohio.
