

again. As for Mrs. Carnes, "Yes, I would consider running for it."

Marlyn J. Carnes

Dogwood Festival schedule of events

This is the schedule of events for the Dogwood Festival at Piketon, Friday through Sunday:

FRIDAY

Noon-eightfall — Exhibits open.
11 a.m. — Trail ride, approximately six-hour horse trail ride, starting and ending at the Pike County Fairgrounds, Piketon.
6:30-8 p.m. — Junior Stevens of Camp Creek, country music, Market Street stage.
7:15-8:45 p.m. — E-Z High Rock group, Middle Street stage.
8-11 p.m. — Western square dancing, Main Street in front of Activity Center.

SATURDAY

Noon-dark — Exhibits open.
Throughout the day — "Walking thru the Woods" tour conducted by Piketon Boy Scouts, starting from old Piketon School front campus and including the "Indian Bow" where Beaver Boy Scouts will camp out and send up smoke signals throughout the festival.
— Art show, Piketon United Methodist Church annex.
11 a.m. — Trail ride, approximately six-hour horse trail ride, starting and ending at the Pike County Fairgrounds, Piketon.
— Presentation of symbolic dogwood to Bristol Village in front of Activity Center.
Noon — Muscle leaders Rifle Shoot, fairgrounds.
1 p.m. — Bike Rodeo, old Piketon School.
1:30 p.m. — Tobacco spitting contest, in front of Gen. Moore House.
2 p.m. — Shakespeare Drama presentation, Miller's Bank at rear of Howe Funeral Home, Main and Market Streets.
3 p.m. — Puppet Show, by Jasper Livestock 4-H Club, old Piketon School.
4 p.m. — Pet Show, old Piketon School.
5 p.m. — Puppet Show by Jasper Livestock 4-H Club, Old Piketon School.
4-7 p.m. Card Show, open to public, at fairgrounds.
8 p.m. — Dogwood Festival: Honors Band Concert, Piketon High School auditorium.

SUNDAY

10 a.m. - 5 p.m. — Exhibits open.
Throughout the day — "Walking thru the Woods" tour conducted by the Piketon Boy Scouts.
— Art show — Piketon United Methodist Church annex.
8 a.m. — Cyclist Dogwood Tour, starting from the old Piketon School parking lot.
9 a.m. — Antique Automobile Show, Piketon High School parking lot.
1 p.m. — Grand parade, forms at 12:30 p.m. at the Piketon High School parking lot.
2:30 p.m. — Poetry workshop, United Methodist Church.
— Southern Ohio Corvette Club "People's Choice Contest" near old Piketon School parking lot.
— Muzzle loader rifle shoot winners announced, Market Street stage.
3 p.m. — Adelphi Band Concert in front of Connett Piano Shop, Main and Zebulon Streets.
— Bicentennial Community Concert Band concert, Johnson House lawn, Main and Oliver Streets.
— Puppet show by Jasper Livestock 4-H club, old Piketon School.
4 p.m. — Winner of Dogwood quilt worked by Pike County women during the winter, Market street stage.

Market Street Stage

11:30 a.m. - 1 p.m. — Special events.
2:30-4 p.m. — Old Time Banjo Pickin' Contest.
4-5:15 p.m. Junior Osborn of Wakefield, Country music.

Middle Street Stage

Noon-1 p.m. — New Zoisaires of Washington Court House, Gospel music.
2-3 p.m. — Sam Cox and Portsmouth Senior Citizens Center musicians, mountain music.
3:45-5:15 p.m. — Ward Family of Bowel, Appalachian mountain music.

11:30-1 p.m. — Special events.
1:15-2:45 p.m. — Pike County Sheriff Roy E. Hoas and the Blue Ridge Boys, bluegrass music.
3:45-5:30 p.m. — Old-time Fiddlers' contest.
4:45-6 p.m. — Junior Osborn of Wakefield, country music.

Middle Street Stage

Noon-1:15 p.m. — special events.
1:30-3:30 p.m. — Ho-down with the String Dusters Dancing Band of Gallipolis.

Middle Street Stage

3:30-4:30 p.m. — Special events.
4:45-6:15 p.m. — Sam Cox and Portsmouth Senior Citizens Center musicians, mountain music.
7:15-8:45 p.m. — Country Knights of Washington Court House, country music.

g probe continues

other by given name: "Mike" and "Charlie."
"Mike," who was sitting in the front seat of the cab, hit Carroll in the head with a soft drink bottle after Carroll had driven them from a motel in southern Delaware County to a truckstop south of Columbus.
Carroll scuffled with the men. All three ended up in the back seat. After Carroll stopped fighting, "Charlie" drove the cab to Chillicothe. The two men left the cab and driver behind the Super Duper market in Zane Plaza and fled.
Carroll said the men made no attempt to rob him.
Champ said he suspects the two men are from the Chillicothe area — primarily because of their apparent familiarity with local roads.

Mt. Logan show
Members of the Mt. Logan

Chillicothe

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Thu, Mar 21, 2019