

Dogwood Honors Band to perform

PIKETON — The Pike County Dogwood Festival Committee will present the "Honors Band" as a part of its annual festival which began today and runs through Sunday.

The band has 190 top high school musicians from southern Ohio. Students are selected on the basis of ability and leadership as nominated by their high school band director. The group rehearses together only once prior to the concert which will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Piketon High School Auditorium. The concert is open to the public and tickets will be on sale at the door.

Local students selected for this year's group are:

Theresa Hadley, Melanie Moon and Lois Pitcher of Greenfield McClain High School; Michele Wright, Lisa Golden, Amy Morton, Lisa Exline, Jeff Clary and Chrystal Benner of Southeastern High School; and Sheila Moore, Heather Hartley, Kelly Hawkins, Amie Hedges, Tiffany Park and Lynn Johnson of Unioto High School.
