

and East the St. will the 364 cing child, April med baby ldly. ON oca- y of held song this . C. gins. Mrs. Ben- Mrs.	noon. ☆☆☆ A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE Maxine, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Echard of Western avenue, was very much surprised, Saturday afternoon, when a group of her friends came to her home to celebrate with her on her ninth birthday. The hours were two to five o'clock, and the time flew in a round of merry games and contests, in which the winners were Esther Hattle, Dolores Brown, Dorothy Herlihy, Roberta Parker, and Pauline Sanders. Later, dainty refreshments were served at small tables, a color scheme of pink being cleverly carried out. Each of the guests presented Maxine with a lovely gift in remembrance of the occasion. They were Esther Hattle, Edella Moore, Katherine Clark, Dorothy Ann Miller, Roberta Parker, Dolores Brown, Dorothy Herlihy, Beulah Huff, Arline Burns, Pauline, Beasie and Edella Sanders, and Francis Shaw. ☆☆☆ WILL MEET WEDNESDAY The Women of Mooseheart Le-
---	--

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Wed, Oct 28, 2020