out the Festival, Leist reports.
Two obtained from the Appalachian Film Workshop Co., Whitesburg, Ky., are "Woodrow Cornett, Letcher (Ky.) County butcher" dealing with early butchering and meat curing practices and "Judge Wooten and Coon-on-a-Log," concerning traditional mountain life. The third film, from Historic Williamsburg, Va., is on blacksmithing. The film viewing site will be announced daily.

On Saturday and Sunday, continuous music will be provided by four groups, performing on a stage in front of the grandstand on Middle Street: Curly and the Sundowners, a Pike County country - western group; the Sam Cox band, West Portsmouth; Morgan Raiders, led by Kenneth Ward, Bidwell, and Adelphi Band, scheduled for a 3:30 p.m. Saturday concert.
