Zane Trace Executive To Retire

CHILLICOTHE, O. — Arthur L. Hinton, veteran Zane Trace teacher and executive head, announced he plans to retire July 31.

The Zane Trace Board of Education has accepted Hinton's resignation "with regret." The veteran educator has served 46 years in the old Centralia and Zane Trace Districts.

A 1920 graduate of Saltcreek Twp. High School, Hinton studied at Ohio University. His first teaching position was in the one-room Bull Creek School.

He has taught in the district since 1922. He was made high school principal of Centralia in 1940 and superintendent in 1961.

Mr. Hinton is a member of the Ross County and National Teachers Associations, the American Assn. of School Administrators, Adelphi Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite and Aladdin Shrine and is a member of both the Shriner's band and the Adelphi Community Band.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinton live on a farm near Laurelville and attend Laurelville Methodist church where he has been Sunday School superintendent 20 years.
