

Centralians Play Numbers At Festival Honoring Huff

Tribute to the late Will Huff, local composer and bandmaster, was paid by participants in the Centralia school's spring festival at Centralia auditorium, Friday night before a capacity audience.

Womeldorf, heading east on Main street, drove into Russell Galbreath's car, parked in front of Jones Dairy store. Both cars had minor damage.

ROBERTSON WILL

Will of Bertha Robertson, late of Chillicothe, has been admitted to probate. It provides that T. E. Robertson be the executor and that he hold a life estate in all the property. On his death, the estate goes to nieces and nephews: John and Kenneth Knecht, Dan DeLong Jr., Mary DeLong, Evelyn Taylor, Mrs. Lorine Howe, Lawrence DeLong, Charles Schremser and Russell Schremser.

BIKES RECOVERED

Accompanied by Clyde Short, Kingston, Deputy Sheriff M. C. Tackett journeyed to Catlettsburg, Ky., and recovered three bicycles which Short and George Kramer, another Kingston youth, confessed disposing of there. The bicycles were returned to their owners, Carl Miller, Russell Linton and Ralph A. Francis, all of Kingston. Short and Kramer were indicted by the April term grand jury on larceny charges in connection with the thefts.

COUPLE SENTENCED

Following arrests made at 3:10 a. m., Friday at the home of Virginia Sheets, 26½ East Water street, the woman was arraigned before Mayor Harold H. Brown and was fined $200 and costs and sentenced to 90 days in the workhouse for operating a disorderly house. Earl Ragland, same address, drew a similar fine and sentence and two juvenile girls were turned over to juvenile court authorities. Cliff Short, 49,

Two of his numbers were featured on the program: "Magneta" an arrangement for orchestra and "The Matinee", a number by the band.
