

...ing, a very dear friend and MR neighbor, and the happy couple stree who were the honored guests. the v ☆☆☆ of 1
A BIRTHDAY PARTY Farn
Mrs. Arthur Miller entertained urda fifteen little girls very pleasantly, or of Saturday afternoon, at her home on whos Laurel street, in honor of the ninth Swop birthday of her daughter, Dorothy June Ann.
The hours were from two to five N o'clock, and merry games and con- M tests filled the afternoon with pleas- 150 ure for all the little guests. Prizes the were awarded Katherine Clark and Wgt the honor guest for proficience in TI the games. ogn
Later, they were invited to the ship dining room which was beautifully ism, decorated in pink and white, which Ea color scheme was carried out in the had the refreshments and favors. A birthday cont cake with nine pink candles held tent
the center of the table, while cut licat flowers in the pink and white were as a also used. Favors were dainty pink give rosebud candy holders. Refresh- M ments of ice cream and cake were to d served. give
The guests, each of whom Con presented Dorothy Ann with a lovely gift, were Virginia Hockenberry, G.
Irene Burns, Katherine Clark, Beulah Huff, Pauline Sanders, Maxine T Rohrer, Maxine Echard, Marjory
Maul, Roberta Parker, Edith Hafler, Frie
Leona McCabe, Anne Elizabeth usus
Mathes, Emma Bell Fleming, Merna Rev
Jean Annis, Wayne and Glenn mee
Miller, brothers of the guest of honor. Mor Mrs. Miller was assisted by Mrs. "Ch
John Maul and Miss Margaret folle Stocklin. disc
☆☆☆ M
g of dele

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Wed, Oct 28, 2020