

GIRL RESERVE MOTHER AND DAUGHTER PARTY HELD AT THE WARNER HOTEL

Wednesday Evening—Splendid Program Enjoyed—Miss Gertrude McCallum Acted as Toastmistress and Mrs. Otis Story and Mrs. Loy E. Hoyt Speak—Summer Camp Idea Is Promoted During the Evening.

The Girl Reserve Mother and Daughter banquet held Wednesday evening at the Warner Hotel with members of the organization, their mothers, the Women of the Board of the Y. M. C. A. and the Advisory Board of the Reserves as guests was indeed a most enjoyable affair with one hundred and twenty-five present. The idea of the banquet was to promote and increase enthusiasm for the summer camp, and the theme of the program was cleverly carried out along this manner, as well as in the decorations which prevailed at the dinner tables where the guests enjoyed a delicious banquet at 6:30 o'clock. Tennis rackets, golf clubs and golf balls and all sorts of sporting goods were placed on the tables, also bowls of iris and ferns.

Miss Gertrude McCallum served as an excellent toastmistress, who introduced the outgoing officers, Mary Eloise Biery, Anne Haney and Jane Gallagher, who responded with appropriate remarks. Mrs. Otis J. Story gave an interesting talk on "Adult Education," and Mrs. Loy E. Hoyt, member of the Advisory board and chairman of the camp committee gave an informative talk concerning the summer camp.

A pageant, "Two Weeks with Pay", (A Midsummer Day Dream) directed by Miss Florentina Mathias, was cleverly put on and pertained to the camping idea.

The cast for the play follows: Maxine Armstrong, Mary Mutchler, Ella Louise Fearney, Virginia Francis, Merrila Ravis, Betty Jean Armstrong, Betty Lynch, Virginia Seney, Dorothy Kern Sue Hall, Eleanor Robbins, Aila Schoppert, Miriam Hartman, Mary Jane Harcourt, Mary Jane Nisely, Virginia Lee, Ninetta Weaver, Anne Day, Betty Higley, Marjorie Bordner, Beulah Huff, Betty Wurster, Florence Barrett, Jean Haney.

Throughout the evening the camp songs were sung with Miss Betty Acton at the piano and Miss Mary Knapp as song leader.

The committee for this affair consists of Margaret Breinig, chairman, Elizabeth Breinig, Mary E. Brombacher, Ann Wachter, Dorothy Harris, and Eldell Saunders.
