

Prince, princess chosen to reign during Deer Creek Dam Days

WILLIAMSPORT — Five-year-olds Tiffany Liff of Mount Sterling and Shannon Rigsby of Williamsport won the little princess and prince titles at the Deer Creek Dam Days.

Tiffany is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Liff. Shannon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rigsby.

Tiffany's attendants are first runnerup Dawnaka Overly, 5, daughter of the Dan Overlys of Circleville; and second runnerup Deborah Glasgow, 8, daughter of the David Glasgows of Stoutsville.

Joining Shannon in the limelight are first attendant Charles Julian Jr., 4, son of the Charles Julians of Stoutsville, and Gene Fenneken, 7, son of the Joe Fennekens of Williamsport.

They won in competition among 50 girls and 33 boys.

Festival secretary Ruth Schleich reported "a very good crowd" Friday night despite rain. Friday's crowd was the largest thus far in the five-day festival, she said, although she said no numerical estimate was available.

Today's attractions include a flea market, a five-mile run, baby contest, and the 7 p.m. Queens Parade followed by three hours of square dancing.

The festival closes Sunday with a gospel sing, antique car show, Drill Team Parade and a concert by the Adelphi Community Band.

Here is a list of weekend activities.
