

Musical feast

Friday: Hallsville- Adelphi Band

The Hallsville-Adelphi Band has been called "The band that played on and on and on."

The group traces its roots to 1880. The band makes 25 to 35 appearances in the area between April and October each year. The present band has about two dozen members; the number has varied over the years.

The band will perform at 3 p.m. Friday at the uptown stage.

of the
Alw
bagpip
by H.
Amer
auther
regim
yellow
the b
and d
comm
Ins
cente
are al
well
traine
are tu
and t

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Fri, Mar 22, 2019