Bologna Festival this weekend at Adelphi

ADELPHI — The final schedule has been completed for the third annual Adelphi Bologna Festival Friday through Monday.

The festival began in 1972, sponsored by the Adelphi-Colerain Volunteer Fire Department. Proceeds from the festival go to buy equipment for the department.

The festival was named after a particular German-type bologna which originated in Adelphi more than 100 years ago. The bologna was made in the village until 1940. In 1946 Homer Fetherolf, of Laurelville, started making a bologna, closely resembling the original Adelphi bologna, which is sold at the festival.

Candidate critical

Dr. Lloyd A. Wood criticized the current administration and Congress for the high rate of inflation at the Adams County Democratic Club monthly dinner meeting.

Wood, of Chillicothe, is the Democrat candidate for the 6th District U.S. House of Representatives seat.

Wood said inflation is the most serious problems facing the nation, and there will be catastrophic effects at the present rate of price increase.

Wood said farmers are worse off than persons on fixed incomes, as prices of farm equipment and supplies are soaring, and farm commodity
