March ..... Orchestra

Graduates: Audrey Skinner, Eldon Shoemaker, Ruth Throckmorton, Carlene Deffenbaugh, William Stuart, Audrey Earl, Leola Burton, John Elliott, Lawrence Hutchison.

Mr. W. A. Yaple used as his topic, "Ideals", telling how they were first formed in the home, school and the church. He talked of the Ideals in History who aimed at a certain goal and how much act was accomplished. Such Ideals were: Columbus, Lindberg, Woodrow Wilson, The Pilgrims, Abraham Lincoln, Jane Adams and Dorothy Thursday.

Mrs. He closed his address by reciting "The Present Critic" from Lowell's "Book of Poems". His talk was certainly an inspiration to each graduate, and his topic was one which they should remember through their high school days. We wish them success through the four years of school that are to follow.
