

Public Welfare. salary of $5,512.

Adelphi festival to open Thursday

ADELPHI — Marilyn McNichols, the 1977 Adelphi Bologna Festival queen, will cut a ribbon Thursday at 5 p.m. to open the eighth Bologna Festival.

The old-time street carnival started as a fish fry held every Memorial Day by the Adelphi Volunteer Fire Department and grew into a festival. The department and its auxiliary have been preparing for this year's festival which will continue through Memorial Day.

The department will have a fish stand, a country store and a little log cabin to sell Adelphi bologna. The bologna is packaged and processed by the Laurelville Meat Packing Co., Laurelville.

A queen contest will be held Thursday at 7:30 p.m. and is open to any girl in grades 9-12 in the Zane Trace School District.

Little Miss and Mister contestants must be age 5-8 and live in the school district. Linda Smith may be contacted for contest details.

A talent contest will be held Friday at 6 p.m. The Kustoms will provide back-up music and Larry Elkins will preside over the event which is sponsored by the fire department.

A baking contest is scheduled for noon Saturday. The categories for the second-year event will be yeast, pie and cake. Games and contests for children will be held on North Street at 11 a.m. Saturday. A big wheel race, egg toss and bubble gum bubble blowing contest will be included in the activities.

A Pinewood Derby for Cub Scouts will be held Saturday at 1 p.m.

Thursday's parade, at 6 p.m., will feature pets and decorated bicycles along with the queen contestants. The pets and bicycles will be judged at 7 p.m. Entries may be made by contacting Marlene VanFossen or Ann Carter.

The main parade is scheduled for Saturday at 5 p.m. with Teri Blair of Channel 6 News, Columbus, as marshal. A Queen of Queens contest will be held on the main stage immediately following the parade and awards will be given for the best floats. Entries may be made by contacting Leona Barnes or Jane Stevens.

The Rhythm Drifters will be featured in square dancing Friday and Saturday nights from 8 p.m. until midnight.

Entertainment at the main stage will include The Kustoms, Thursday 9-11 p.m.; The Country Knights, Washington Court House, at 2 p.m. Saturday; The Adelphi Community Band, Saturday, 4 p.m.; The Crusaders, Sunday at 4:30 p.m.; and Bill McKnight and the Nitehawks on Monday 5-8:30 p.m.

The highest bidder will win a cake at a cake auction Saturday, 10 p.m. with a hand-made ripple afghan also up for bids.

Salvation Army honors woman

The annual dinner meeting of the advisory board of the Salvation Army was held Monday night.

Anna Louise Higgins was to receive the Appreciation Award, but could not be present.

Mrs. Higgins, 618 Seneca Road, taught private piano lessons at the local Salvation Army for five years under the leadership of Maj. Ernest A. Ashcraft. She helped with brass and vocal music programs for young persons.

She was installed as a member of the advisory board on Dec. 6, 1968.

She is the director of the adult bell choir at the First Presbyterian Church. The group has performed at the Salvation Army kickoff for the annual Christmas drive for several years.

Maj. Wilmer L. Bender read the annual report, followed by remarks from Maj. Kenneth Lance, visiting officer.

The invocation was given by Rev. G.W. Wilcher and the benediction was given by Bender.

Officers of the advisory board: Charles Knoles, chairman; Warren Henricks, vice chairman; Marie Niederauer, secretary; James Coates, treasurer.

Anna Louise Higgins

School superintendent to resign

Anderson. He had been principal of Waverly High School for five years. He had also been principal of West Elementary School, Waverly, for two years and an assistant professor at Xavier University, Cincinnati, for four years.

Martin, his wife and two sons will be moving to Highlands County Florida where he will be principal of the Avon Park Middle School. The Martins also have a daughter who attends Ohio State University in Columbus.

The resignation will be submitted during a special meeting of the Scioto Valley (Pikeston) Board of Education at 8 tonight. It will become effective June 30.

"I feel we accomplished quite a bit," Martin said of his year's service to the district. "We passed a levy and had all our schools evaluated by the Ohio Department of Education."

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Thu, Mar 21, 2019