

Page Two

Memorial Day Plans Outlined

(Continued from Page One)

American Legion drum and bugle corps.

The Brownie Scout Troop also will participate in the service, while the Sorosis Club is to arrange bouquets for the service during a meeting Monday.

New Holland

New Holland will open its Memorial Day observance at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday with formation of a parade at the American Legion home, North Main street.

The parade is scheduled to be formed by 1:45 p. m. and will begin its march to New Holland cemetery at 2 p. m. Circleville high school marching band will provide the parade music.

Services will be held at about 2:30 p. m. in Soldiers' Circle in the cemetery. The program will be opened with a number by the Circleville band, followed by invocation and vocal music.

Speaker for the service will be Winston Hill, city manager of Washington C. H. The speaker will be introduced by Harry Armstrong.

A firing squad from Arch Post American Legion will perform following the address, followed by "Taps."

Flowers to be donated for the service are to be delivered to the New Holland fire house Tuesday.

Reber Hill

Services in Reber Hill cemetery are scheduled to begin at 2 p. m. Tuesday with music played by the Walnut Township school band.

Speaker for the memorial program will be Marvin W. Scott, chairman of the Americanism committee in the Ohio American Legion.

Scott was in the medical division of the 12th Aero squadron during World War I.

Harrison

Harrison Township cemetery Memorial Day services are to begin at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday.

Fred C. Dunn of Columbus is to be present the memorial address during the program.

Dunn, who was assigned to duty in the U. S. Army in the

Mainly About People

ONE MINUTE PULPIT

Some of us imagine that we can fight against the unseen ruler of the universe. But the stars in their course fight against us. We cannot win. Get on God's side. Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.—Ps. 37:5.

* * *

Jean Heine, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter F. Heine of 109 East Mound street, has been initiated into the Pi Beta Phi sorority in Ohio Wesleyan university.

* * *

I.B.P.O.E.W. will serve a benefit supper, Friday, May 26 at the Elks Home, 644 S. Scioto St. Menu—Fish, potato salad, baked beans, bread and butter. Everyone welcome. Start serving 5 p. m. —ad.

* * *

A marriage license has been issued in Pickaway County probate court to Glenn M. Clay, 37, meat cutter, of Columbus and Mary Willoughby, candy maker, of Ashville.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Blackburn of Circleville travelled to Wilmington Thursday to attend graduation exercises of the doctor's granddaughter, Patricia Regan.

* * *

Hospital Guild No. 23 will have a Pie Sale, Saturday, May 27 in superintendent of Saltcreek Township school.

Judge William D. Radcliff of Pickaway County common pleas court is to deliver the memorial address in Kingston.

The Adelphi Community Band will present the music for all three programs.

Lockbourne

Memorial Day ceremonies in Fernwood cemetery will be held at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Speaker for the memorial program will be Thomas W. Applegate, Columbus attorney and World War II veteran.

The service is sponsored by the Robert Dutro America Legion post, supervised by Ed and Don Hafey.

Flowers for the service are to be taken directly to the cemetery.