

om-
ner,
gov.
amon

Selection of queen opens festival

Sixteen year old Lisan L. Haughn is reigning over the first full day of activities at the Bologna Festival today. The festival will continue through Monday.

Miss Haughn, Route 2, Laurelville, was selected festival queen from a field of seven before a larger than expected opening day crowd Thursday. Sharon Lee Mace, 16, Adelphi, was selected as her attendant.

(Photos on page 13)

Janelle Rae Goodman, 7, and Chris McNeal, 6, both of Adelphi, were chosen princess and prince. Beth Ann Mettler, 6, Adelphi, was picked as attendant to the princess. Don Patterson, Adelphi attorney, emceed the contests.

The winners of the contests will represent the festival in the parade scheduled Saturday afternoon and at various events during the coming year.

The Stonerock Band will perform tonight, beginning at 7:30. Saturday the Zane Trace High School and Adelphi Bands will present concerts. At 4 p.m. Saturday the parade will begin with 60 units participating.

Proceeds from the festival will go toward the purchase of new fire equipment for the Adelphi - Colerain Fire Department.

More than 700 persons attended the opening of the first annual festival.

Miss Haughn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Haughn. Miss Mace is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mace. Beth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mettler. Janelle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Goodman. Chris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Randy McNeal.

State Phillip cation to call tax ine Richl crease state's on $1 b constru 1964 an amount men: is Will: said, th its hig gram year.

Sm
surv
At A Hi
in

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Thu, Mar 21, 2019