

don't wave flags. We're losing our renewing this.

Memorial weekend events

■ The City of Chillicothe will sponsor its annual Veterans Memorial Service, held during the course of the Feast of the Flowering Moon, at 6:30 p.m. Saturday. American Legion Post 62 color guard and the Veterans Organizations Composite Firing Squad (American Legion, VFW, DAV, and Amvets) will participate in the service. All veterans organizations are welcome to participate.

Michael Walton, director of Veterans Affairs Medical Center, will be the featured speaker. Dr. John R. Sulzer, a World War II veteran, will present the memorial wreath at the Veterans Memorial.

■ Civil War Round Table, General Joshua W. Sill Chapter, Memorial Day services, Grandview Cemetery, 9 a.m., American Legion Services, Soldiers Monument Area; 9:20 a.m., CWRT services at graves of General Joshua W. Sill, USA, and Maj. Charles Tayloe Mason, CSA. A special honor guard of the Camp William Dennison Sons of Union Veterans and the 63rd O.V.I., in full uniform and using Civil War muskets, will fire volleys over the Civil War veterans graves. A regular Memorial Day Service of the G.A.R., taken from its manual, will be used. Margaret Graves will be the principal speaker. The Confederate grave of Mordecai Hopewell and Union grave of Medal of Honor winner Col. Richard Enderlin will also receive recognition. Brunch will follow for members at 16 Huron Road.

■ Father Donald Franks will celebrate Mass at St. Margaret Cemetery at 11 a.m. on Memorial Day. In case of inclement weather, Mass will be celebrated in St. Mary's Church.

■ Memorial Day service, Monday, May 29, at the Hallsville United Methodist Church in Hallsville, next to the old red brick school house; band concert at 9:30 a.m. by the Adelphi Band; services begin at 10 a.m. John Street Jr., a Chillicothe attorney, will speak. Program will conclude at the Hallsville Cemetery.

■ Joseph W. Hoffman American Legion Post 757 Auxiliary members and Legionnaires will meet at 8 a.m. Monday at the post to go to Floral Hills at 9 a.m., then to the Chillicothe Veterans Affairs Medical Center and Little Mound Cemetery at Richmond Dale for memorial services. The South-eastern High School Band will play at Londonderry Friends Cemetery and at Richmond Dale Little Mound Cemetery.

■ American Legion Post No. 483, Frankfort, will have services at 10 a.m. Monday at Frankfort Greenlawn Cemetery and at 11 a.m. at Brown's Chapel Cemetery near Clarksburg. Rev. Kevin Kilvin, pastor of Frankfort First Presbyterian Church, will speak at both cemeteries. The Adena High School Band, under the direction of Larry Wilson, will provide music. The Frankfort Boy Scouts will decorate the crosses and place the memorial wreaths. Lunch will be available after the service at Brown's Chapel. Anyone who wishes may attend.

■ Memorial services will be held by the Laurelville VFW Post 8657 Sunday. The schedule includes: 9:30 a.m., meet at the post; 10:30 a.m., services at the Stump Cemetery, Pickaway County; noon, lunch, carry-in at Pleasant Hill Church, Ohio 327; 1 p.m., services at the Pleasant Hill Cemetery; and 2:30 p.m., services at Green Summit Cemetery at Adelphi on Ohio 180.

The Adelphi Band may assist at the Pleasant Hill Church and Green Summit Cemetery. Call Commander Emmet Smith, 887-4813, for more information.

■ American Legion Post 14, Bainbridge, will hold Memorial Day service at 1 p.m. Monday at the Bainbridge Cemetery.

■ American Legion Post 62 will participate in services Saturday in the city park and in the Feast of the Flowering Moon parade on Sunday; conduct services Monday at 9 a.m. at Grandview Cemetery Civil War Monument and at 10 a.m. at Grandview Veterans Cemetery; with the composite firing squad at Greenlawn Cemetery Soldiers Circle at 10:45 a.m. and continuing on to the Soldiers Square in Greenlawn Cemetery.

■ The Chillicothe Veterans Affairs Medical Center will commemorate Memorial Day with award services throughout the center in the various wards for the veterans who are hospitalized.

Special services, open to the public, will be Sunday morning. The Catholic service will be at 8:45 a.m. and the Protestant service will be at 10:15 a.m.

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Sat, Mar 23, 2019