

nerai
until

Memorial Rites At Hallsville

In addition to psecial Memorial Day services in Chillicothe and Frankfort, as outlined Thursday in the Gazette, folk in the Hallsville community will stage an observance of their own.

The service will be under the supervision of Buchwalter Post, American Legion, and will be at 10 a. m. Monday, at the Hallsville Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The Rev. Fred Knickrehm, pastor of the Chillicothe Walnut St. Methodist Church, will be the speaker, and special music will be provided by a trio consisting of Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Mrs. Roy Bell and Mrs. Franklin Desbach.

Following the church service, the Adelphi Band will lead the procession to the Hallsville Cemetery where the observance will be concluded at Memorial Circle with the decoration of graves of veterans.

daughte
zer Hosp
Mrs. He
Mrs. Lu
are the

Mot

(Cont

contracte
May 24.

Mrs. I
proven a
would b
from th
year.

A
at y
Ree

in a 23,
ginia
h of when
rail,
then
was
Cor-
car,
been
the
that the 7, of the
ve-
hilli-
nbu-

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Wed, Mar 20, 2019