Memorial Services To Honor War Dead

A number of programs also are scheduled in the county.

Clarksburg Program

Legion Post 62 will conduct services at Brown's Chapel in Clarksburg at 3:45 p.m. A concert will be presented by the Adena High School band.

The program will follow a luncheon at the church.

Rev. Copeland to Speak

At Hallsville, the Rev. Glenn Copeland, pastor of the Walnut Street Methodist Church, will speak at 10 a.m. in the Evangelical United Brethren Church. The program, which will include music by the Glick family, is in honor of the Capt. Luther Buchwalter Post, Company A of the Ohio Volunteers Infantry.

A procession to the Hallsville Cemetery, led by the Adelphi band, will follow the church service. While children decorate the soldiers' graves, the Adelphi band will give a concert in Memorial Circle.

Frankfort Ceremony

A program in Frankfort will be sponsored by the Joseph Ellsworth White Legion Post 483 and Auxiliary.

Post Commander George Morgan said commemorative rites will begin at 1 p.m. at Greenlawn Cemetery, Frankfort. The Rev. Thomas Cook, pastor of the Frankfort Methodist Church, will be the speaker.

Music will be furnished by the Adena High School band, directed by James Steel, and a number of Boy Scouts will participate. The program also will include a salute by the American Legion firing squad, commanded by John Cory.
