led a group of residents from the Methodist Church to the cemetery, then played a tribute in the Soldiers Circle. Flag bearer Tom Swepton stands at attention as his father, Lowell, places a wreath on the Soldiers Monument in the cemetery.
