Monday

An old-fashioned Ice Cream Festival at Ye Olde Mille in Utica and the Parade Day of the Moonshine Festival in New Straitsville are some of the activities available today. Festivities on the final day of the Moonshine Festival start at 12 noon with the baton corps competition, family entertainment at 1:15 p.m., presentation of visiting queens and 1977 Miss Moonshine and the grand parade at 3 p.m. The parade includes horses, antique cars, queens, baton corps, bands, floats, unicycles and Shriners.

This will be followed by the Adelphi Community Band Concert, a Corvette show, presentation of awards, part two of the talent show, a rock band dance at 6 p.m. and closing of the festival at 10 p.m.
