

ST. MARY'S CLASS PLAY MAY 15 The St. Mary's senior class will present its class play "A Lucky Break" at the school auditorium Tuesday evening, May 15 at 8:15 p. m. The play is under the capable direction of Mr. Walter J. Breen. Following is the cast of characters. Martha Mullet, proprietor of Hotel Mullet Mildred Creager Nora Mullet, her daughter Marjorie Huff Elaine Ludine Smith, a servant Katherine Hamon Benny Ketcham, a super-salesman Robert Breen Abner Ketcham, his uncle Robert Woodyard Mrs. Barrett, a guest Duena Kellhofer Claudia, her daughter, Loretta Madru Tommy Lansing, a painter Phillip Fisher John Bruce, a man of business Carl Sulzer Charles Martin general manager for Bruce Ray Burns Jura Charente, a French dancing teacher Charles Hellman Var Charente, his brother William Hamu Bella MacWatt, a guest Helen Lynch Spivins, a busman Edward Cadden After an absence of twenty years, John Bruce returns to the Connecticut village of his boyhood, where he is beset on all sides by "friends" asking favors. Suspecting that his money is the source of his popularity, he permits a rumor that he has lost his fortune in Wall Street to go unchecked, believing that this will show his friends in their true colors. After many mirth-provoking difficulties, the play leads to a happy conclusion for all concerned. DUILOOODIV	SCHOOL IZA (Cont away. Th makes th for any c ease can can run. method o there wa woman w en out w gation fr into four Ross cour departme ties; the of and no curred. The c schools h health pe of Health understo We are e movement and hope come whic Ross cour spite of the bring children portuntie This dan met by t of childre of the c Also the s partment frequently school th schools. Most ce warm lun tinct adv child, so t tralization improvem of the he When t stoner me
---	---

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Sun, Nov 1, 2020