Spotlight On Ross; Davey Calls Rally

Armory Speech Will Be Deferred Half Hour for Radio Feature

Chillicothe moves into the spotlight in the seven-way battle for Democratic gubernatorial nomination, Tuesday night, when Martin L. Davey, former governor, comes to Memorial Armory to address a rally of the faithful.

Mr. Thomas L. Collopy, Ross county captain of Davey forces, said the rally will open at 8:30 o'clock. The Adelphi band will give a concert in front of the court house at 7:30 and then parade to the armory.

While originally scheduled for 8 p.m. because of the Pot 'O Gold radio program during that period, Mr. Collopy added.

Who will preside over the meeting has not been determined Tuesday morning, Mr. Collopy said, explaining that he expected a decision to be made in this connection sometime during the late afternoon.

Mr. Davey will give the only address, but state, county and district candidates have been invited to sit on the platform and will be introduced. Delegations from Franklin, Pickaway, Fairfield, Licking, Knox, Delaware, Morrow, Union, Madison and Marion counties are expected to follow Davey here.
