Patriotic Entertainment, Dinner, Sports at Country Club Mark Memorial Day

Outstanding in interest and deeply significant, was the patriotic entertainment presented at the Country Club on the evening of Memorial Day by thirty five adults and children. Miss Anna Louise Horney directing, assisted by Miss Katherine Mills, Mr. Robert Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. James Clark and Mr. Joseph Rigbey.

The entertainment edipicted eight epochs in the history of our land as arranged and cast by Miss Horney, where talent and ability was manifest in each feature.

The epochs were illustrated by reading, song and tableaux. The readings by Miss Martha Bennett, were contemporaneous with the events depicted and were beautifully done in her inimitable manner.

Miss Horney presided at the piano and Anne Hoyt was the trumpeter. The jig by little Marjory Butler was fine. The tableaux scenes and dances were very effective and made real the living past while the singing was inspiring in its patriotic fervor. About one hundred persons enjoyed the entertainment which included the follow-
