

(Continued on Page Two)

Initial Band Concert Sunday Evening Inaugurates Season

The opening of the band concert season occurs Sunday evening when the Odd Fellows Band will present a program with Mrs. Bess Stevenson assisting with a vocal selection. The concert will be held in the city park and the program chosen by Director Will Huff is one which should please the large concourse of citizens who will gather to hear it. The program follows:

|   |                     |
|---|---------------------|
| March—Salute to Yoctangee 1931 .....    | Will Huff           |
| Selection from Firefly .....            | Friml               |
| Danse Carolina .....                    | Turner              |
| Mexican Waltz—"I See Thee Again" .....  | Estrada             |
| A Hunting Scene, descriptive .....      | Buccalossi          |
| A Fireside Tale, Novelette .....        | Eisenberg           |
| March—"On The Mail" .....               | Goldman             |
| Intermission                            |                     |
| March—"Pyrolite" .....                  | Booth               |
| Overture—"Zampa" .....                  | Herald              |
| Vocal Solo Selected .....               | Mrs. Bess Stevenson |
| World War Medley .....                  | Arr. by Lake        |
| Popular Number.                         |                     |
| Waltz Medley of Old Songs .....         | Arr. by Reeves      |
| Selection—Sullivans Operatic Gems ..... | Arr. by Brockton    |
| March—"Sons of Uncle Sam" .....         | McCoy               |
| Star Spangled Banner .....              | McCoy               |

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Fri, Oct 30, 2020