Elks, Veterans Team-Up to Mark Flag Day

Special Flag Day program will be held in front of the courthouse at 7 p. m. Tuesday, under the sponsorship of the Chillicothe Elks lodge in collaboration with all county service organizations and their auxiliaries.

Following a half hour band concert by the Adelphi band and the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner," Orville Barrett, exalted ruler of the Elks will give the welcoming address. Ralph Martin, Elks chaplain, will offer the invocation.

Principal speaker for the Flag Day service will be Russell Bateiger, secretary of the Elks, whose remarks will concern "Our Tribute to the Flag."

Flag-burning ceremony will be conducted by American Legion Post 61 with Comdr. Harry Chenault in charge. Closing remarks will be given by Mr. Barrett, and the program will end with the singing of "America."

The Adelphi band and representatives of the various service organizations and auxiliaries will assemble at the Elks home on West Second street and march to the courthouse.
