

Clipped by mathew5554

EDIT SHARE PRINT DOWNLOAD Save to Ancestry

REDMEN IN ALL THEIR GLORY

Latest Outbreak by the Tribes of the Scioto Valley.

THEY CAPTURE ADELPHI

Cornplanter Tribe welcomes the Invaders and Dedicates a New Wigwam.

The town of Adelphi is in the hands of the Indians to-day, or, at least, the Redmen have captured it. The occasion of the outbreak of the tribes is the dedication of the new wigwam of Corn Planter tribe. The new wigwam is a substantially built, three-story brick, and is one of the best, if not the best building in Adelphi. On the ground floor are business rooms; the next floor holds a large hall, fit for concerts, dances, and meetings of all sorts, while on the third floor are the lodge rooms of the local tribe of the I. O. R. M.

The Redmen of this city went out in force this morning, making the trip in carriage, and taking with them many members of the Daughters of Pocahontas, so that the delegation from Chillicothe numbered about fifty. The new uniformed rank, to the number of 25, in command of Captain Val. Rice, formed a part of the delegation. Of this body G. W. Thompson is first, and G. V. Sosman, second lieutenant. With the uniformed rank went Asst. Adj. W. F. Hauck, of Columbus, and Staff Col. Lee Des Martin.

The town of Adelphi is thrown wide open to welcome the Big Chiefs and their warriors and squaws, who are there to the number of nearly five hundred, from this city, Circleville, Logan and Columbus. Corn Planter tribe is noted for its hospitality, but this occasion taxes the utmost effects of the tribe, and the members of it are glad that it is so, in order that they may show their willingness to give their fellow Redmen the best at their command. The tribe from Logan came over one hundred strong; Circleville sent a big contingent headed by its cadet band of 23 pieces, and the Adelphi band is out helping make things lively.

The committee of Corn Planter tribe, in charge of the ceremonies, is composed of Hugh F. Egan, H. G. Barton, A. P. Bitzer, L. C. Hynes and Done Ortman. The committee prepared a good program for the day. The morning was given up to welcoming the guests, a reception being held at the opera house from 9 to 11, at which hour an address of welcome was made on behalf of Corn Planter tribe by H. G. Barton, and responses were made by the "Great Chiefs" and representatives from the various visiting tribes.

From 11:30 to 1:30 dinner was served to the visiting warriors, a dinner that included all the substantial and delicacies of the season, and to which the visitors did full justice. At the conclusion of the dinner all the tribes and degrees assembled at the opera house and marched to the new wigwam, where the dedicatory ceremonies were conducted in an impressive manner by the Great Chiefs.

The other exercises of the afternoon commence at 2:30, and will be as follows: Vocal solo, George V. Sosman; address by Grand Sachem, H. N. Clemens, of Cleveland; address by I. M. Jordan; solo, C. K. Howard, of Circleville; music by the band; team drill, Congo Tribe, accompanied by orchestra of the tribe; five minute talks by various visitors; closing exercises.

After the conclusion of the afternoon exercises supper will be served from 5 to 7. From 7 to 8:30 there will be band concerts, and after the concert there will be an entertainment at the opera house for all invited brothers and guests. There are about fifty applicants for the Haymakers' degree, and this work will be in the hands of the celebrated team from this city, which went to Adelphi 18 strong, headed by Mr. Lee Des Martin, Boss Haymaker. This work will commence at twilight and will continue until all the applicants have received the degree. The team from here went prepared to give the degree in first-class style, with new and improved machinery. The day is one one that Corn Planter tribe and all visitors will long remember.

Other Clippings by mathew5554

WHAT CAN YOU FIND IN THIS NEWSPAPER?

Enter a name or keyword

Search now

Newspaper