Geranium Festival opens Wednesday

KINGSTON — This year's Kingston Geranium Festival will open with the first game of a Youth League Baseball Tournament Wednesday afternoon and the selection of festival royalty that night.

The festival has been slated Wednesday through next Sunday.

The community celebration will feature an antique car show, band concerts, games, contests, rides, food booths, free entertainment, parades, free exhibits, a queen contest and a baseball tournament.

The Little Queen and king contests have been scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday. Sharon Goldsberry, 1972 Geranium Festival Queen, will crown the new queen following the little contests.

The Miss Geranium Parade will be held opening night at 7 p.m.

The parade of queens will be held Saturday at 5 p.m.

The parade will form at the intersection of Ing and Church Streets; move east on Ing to Main Street; south on Main to Third to Woodland; north on Woodland to Pickaway and east on Pickaway to Church.

The antique car show will be held Sunday, with registration beginning at 9 a.m. and judging beginning at 12:30 p.m.

This year's festival has been billed as Ohio's fastest growing festival
