

as- d to aken alled	<h1>War Equipment</h1> (Continued from Page One) The equipment parade was escorted by police cars and the Adelphi band, followed by other cars carrying bond salesmen and interested citizens. The Rev. Harold B. Weir was the master-of-ceremonies for the afternoon program at the courthouse which opened with an address by Mayor Harold H. Brown. During the afternoon there were musical numbers by the band, with intervening one-minute war bond appeals. The afternoon program was to be concluded at 5:30 o'clock, with an hour of recorded music before the opening of the evening ceremonies at 6:30 p. m., with Arthur M. Howson in charge. During the sales activities members of the women's bond sales committee circulated through the crowds soliciting purchases of bonds. Mrs. John Traquair was chairman in charge of this division. A booth was used where purchases were made for immediate delivery and Boy and Girl Scouts served as messengers between the booth and the Sherman theater, where the bond issuing agent was located. Deputy Collector	Est cease No E. has Adm V. D Coun Cre their Daug mont Da June Est cease No St. C appo trato Clair Ohio Cre their Adm be f Da June Est cease No Bode Ohio fied Marg Ross Cr their Adm be f Da
------------------------------	--	--

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Wed, Mar 20, 2019