Children Give Program at Christian Church

First Christian church had special children's day exercises Sunday at the church.

The program included: piano solo, "In a Chinese Garden," Carol Norviel; recitations, "Welcome," Mary Deuvall, "Greetings," Leslie Ann Baucus, "The Happiest One," Cheryl Stauffer, "A Little Sunbeam," Rose Ann Stultz, "A Children's Day Rose," Patty Cook, "Welcome," Jackie Baucus, "I Wonder Who," Virginia Schuer, "What Daddy Thought," Beth Norviel, "For Children's Day," Loretta Gallaughter, and "My School," Arthur Myatt; and songs by the children, "Jesus Loves Me" and "Love Him! Love Him!"

A demonstration of the use of the flannelgraph was given by William Huff Jr. and the Scripture lesson was read by Douglas Cook Jr.

Mrs. Oscar Keller, supervisor of the Junior church, directed a drill on Bible questions and illustrated the work of the Junior church. Carol Norviel and Anne Deuvall sang "Whispering Hope" with Nancy Collins at the piano. Nancy Collins played Grieg's "Piano Concerto in A Minor."
