47th Pickaway County Fair opens

and Glenn Hinton are shown performing after the flag raising and opening speeches by Ellory Elick, Fair Board president, and last year's fair queen, Angie Lands. A new queen and king will be chosen tomorrow at 8 p.m.
