

Bicentennial Parade Lineup Taking Shape

A progress report on the organization of a parade in Logan to highlight Hocking County's Bicentennial celebration on Sunday, July 4, was presented at a meeting of the parade committee held Monday evening in Nick's Party Center.

Harry Armstrong, parade chairman, announced that mechanized units or entries to be towed in the procession will line up at the Scenic Lanes parking lot prior to the 2:30 p.m. event.

People marching in the parade should meet at Gallagher Ave. and Main St.

The parade will proceed east on Main St. directly to the Hocking County Fairgrounds, where the Logan Jaycee-sponsored "Holiday-at-Home, 1976" will be in progress.

Persons or organizations wishing to participate in the parade should inform John Gillogly, 385-3233, or Willis Dicken, 385-3877, of their entries by Monday, June 28.

Armstrong stressed that all city and invited to ride in the parade and should county public officials are cordially contact Gillogly if they wish to participate.

Gillogly and Dicken are the parade lineup committee.

One feature of the parade will be theme floats on clay, coal, agriculture,

See related story on Bicentennial activities on page 2.

etc., depicting the growth of natural resources throughout the years in Hocking County.

Organizations or individuals responsible for these floats are:

Rotary Club, clay; Kiwanis Club, agriculture; Hocking Valley Concrete, sand and gravel; Bob Kapper, U.S. Soil Conservation Service, forestry; Lions Club, transportation, and Jim Ucker, coal.

Jeanette Everett Northup, Logan's

Sesquicentennial queen in 1966, also will be in the parade.

Antique and new cars also are expected to participate.

Other entries include the following: Logan junior and senior high school bands, Adelphi Community Band, color guard of the combined veterans' organizations; Hocking County Historical Society, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Schneider Dance School.

Chieftain Riders 4-H Club, Blazing Saddles 4-H Club, Patchworkers 4-H Club, Logan Jaycees, Logan Business & Professional Women's Club, Happy Hills Campground, Future Farmers of America, Dicken's Barber Shop, Farmers & Merchants Bank, Logan Area Chamber of Commerce, Governor Worthington Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution.

Another meeting of the parade committee will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, June 28, in the Logan Armory.

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Sat, Mar 23, 2019