

EDIT SHARE PRINT DOWNLOAD Save to Ancestry

One Hundred and Thirty-Third Year, No. 149

Sesqui To Feature Gigantic Parade Next Saturday

A gala 35-unit parade will be staged at 2 p.m. next Saturday as one of the highlights of the Logan sesquicentennial celebration.

Units, as they will appear in the line of march, are:

Antique cars; Logan High School band; Mayor Jack Moorehead, grand marshal; sesqui committee; Sesqui Queen contestants; Bill Sauer, Logan's No. 1 sports fan; horse-drawn ambulance displayed by Hocking Valley Community Hospital.

Bob Evans Farm team of oxen; New Lexington mounted posse; YWCA float; Elkettes band from Lancaster; Hocking Valley Radio Club; oxen and sled by Mrs. Raymond Woodgeard; Elberfeld's float; Sesqui Queen contestants; Junior Princess and her court; Little Miss Princess and her court.

Union Furnace High School band; City Council; Jaycee float; Gold Star Mothers; Ohio National Guard units; Adelphi Oldtimers band; Welcome Wagon.

Business & Professional Women's Club; Schneider Dance Studio, Otto Wine with a mule and covered wagon; Logan Clay Products Co. float; Girl Scouts; Red Cross; Boy Scout Troop 5 drum and bugle corps from Lancaster.

Soap box derby contestants from Logan with their cars; Fairfield School for Boys band; riding club horses.

The parade will form on E. Main St. at the Culver St. intersection. The line of march will be west on Main to Hunter St., east on Hunter to Spring St. and south on Spring to Main, where units will be dismissed.

Crowning of the Sesqui Queen will follow the parade at 4 p.m. at the Courthouse reviewing stand.

50 Entries Expected For Beard Prizes

An estimated 50 "Brothers of the Brush" will be judged in the beard growing contest during

U
F
Do Ne
CI
St
WA Senat ward best-s trigue sinati report
The gethel
J. Do his-an charg at the "I murec senate cappel son's

Show article text (OCR) ▾