KINGSTON — The grand parade at 7 tonight will climax the first annual Kingston Geranium Festival and is expected to attract several thousand persons.

Co-chairmen Ronnie French and Paul Priest said parade participants are to include Geranium Queen Joy Von Clausburg and her court; Regina Miller, Little Miss Festival Queen; Chad Vollmar, Little Festival king; Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner of Columbus; the Circleville Pumpkin Show Queen, Bainbridge Festival of Leaves Queen and State Rep. Myrl Shoemaker.

Other feature attractions of the final day of the four-day festival are an antique and classic car show, finals of the men's horseshoe tournament and concert by the Adelphi Community Band. The festival will close with square dancing in front of the new bandstage with music by Mike Miller's band of Columbus.
