

of Jackson, Corporate Com

Kingston looks for big turnout as festival ends

ROOM will ne

KINGSTON—A large turnout is expected today at the Kingston Geranium Festival. Sunny skies and the many contests and exhibits are expected to attract area visitors.

“We had almost 4000 people at Friday night’s activities,” said a festival committee member.

Silver and half-dollars were awarded to winners and runners-up in the balloon blowing, egg toss and three-legged contests.

Eldon Pittenger’s Belles and Bows gave a square dance demonstration Friday night.

Today’s activities include an antique car show with games and contests scheduled throughout the day.

The grand parade will begin at 6 p.m. with the Zane Trace and Piketon high school bands and the Adelphi community band participating.

Becky Lawrence, Miss Ohio State Fair, will serve as parade marshal.

The Adelphi band will perform at 7 p.m., followed by a square dance at 8 p.m.

Dr.
Me
Willi
Lake
June Hosp be he the audit made of Col be co

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Thu, Mar 21, 2019