LADIES AID SOCIETY MEMBERS ARE FETED

Joint Session Conducted at Home of Mrs. Amanda Diggs

SOUTH SALEM—Through the courtesy of Mrs. Amanda Diggs of Lyndon, ladies of South Salem Presbyterian church were hostesses to their urban neighbors, members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Tyler Memorial (U. B.) church of Chillicothe, Thursday afternoon at her pleasant, hospitable home.

This much enjoyed union, social church function was shared by 15 Chillicothe and 13 Buckskin ladies and children.

The president of the Chillicothe society, Mrs. Elizabeth Berthold, opened the meeting, Mrs. J. J. Grohe, led the devotional service, reading the 12 chapter of Romans, which was followed by a chain of sentence prayers. Roll call, minutes of the May meeting and reports from committees followed.

A short literary program was presented by members of the Buckskin group, consisting of readings by the Misses Ruth and Margaret Zeigler, Eileen Patterson and Mrs. Diggs.

Mrs. Grohe dismissed the meeting with prayer.

Present from Chillicothe were Mrs. Elizabeth Berthold, Mrs. J. J. Grohe, Miss Eva Reible, Mrs. Ina Truitt, Mrs. Stanhope and two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Newman, Mrs. W. Huff, Mrs. A. Ross and T. E. Sherwood.

Buckskin was represented by Mrs. R. H. Parrett, Mrs. Scott Wright, Mrs. Geo. C. Parrett, Mrs. Lydia Buchhammer, Mrs. Ella Folts, Mrs. M. Rea, Miss Margaret Zeigler, Miss Ruth Zeigler, Mrs. Eileen Patterson, Mrs. T. E. Spargur, Mrs. Laura McDonald, Mrs. J. M. Kendall, Mrs. Scott Tudor and Mrs. Amanda Diggs.

Dainty refreshments were served by the individual hostess. Mrs. Diggs assisted by Mrs. Folts.

These union meetings should be productive of much good in that they extend the circle of acquaintance and engender a spirit of cooperation between societies working with the same end in view through the exchange of ideas, plans and methods.
