Memorial Day observance in Kingston was very quiet, but about 3:30 p. m. a line of march was formed which proceeded down S. Main St. from the American Legion Home.

In the lead was the patrol car in which Marshall Compton and Mayor Shepard of Kingston were riding. Following them were representatives of the branches of service, heroes of several wars, carrying their flags. Then a group from the American Legion.

Next in line was the Adelphi Band with their little drum majorette leading. Falling in line were the Brownie Scouts, Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts with their leaders.

There were several jeeps and a truck loaded with soldiers in khaki, and a number of cars carrying local people. They visited the Mt. Pleasant Cemetery where the Memorial Day address was given by the Rev. H. D. Cowdrick of the Methodist Church.

When they returned to the Legion Home they were served ice cream, cake and iced tea by the Legion Auxiliary.

The Ladies Guild of the Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian Church met at the church Wednesday for its regular May meeting.

The President, Mrs. Walsh, held a short business session at which time reports of the recent sales lunches were made.

The president thanked all the members who helped so willingly during those three days.

The program was given by Mrs. Ruth Morgan, an agricultural missionary to India. She presented some interesting slides showing her work and had on display some of the beautiful handwork of the native people.

Guests of the society were five ladies from the Whistler Church and the Rev. H. J. Braden, the pastor.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. R. E. Lightner, Mrs. William McGinnis, Mrs. Gene Dresbach and Mrs. Adrian McVey.

Visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs. L. E. Hill on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Huffman and two children from Reece Station, and Mrs. Glenn Rhinehart and daughter, Alberta from S. Bloomfield.

RECEIVED into membership at the Methodist Church on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Gene Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kline, and the misses Donna and Nancy Minor.

The Carroll Minor family and Ernest Kline family enjoyed a picnic and outing at Lake White Memorial Day.

Fishing, boating and skiing were some of the activities of the day.

Guards Quell Unrest

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP)—Officials at the federal reformatory here quelled an inmate disturbance Tuesday, and later blamed it on "racial friction" at the integrated institution.

No one was injured in a brief flurry of fists which involved several groups of inmates, according to Arnold Ponteso, associate warden.

The inmates involved were sent back to their cell blocks, but later in the evening the trouble broke out again in a dormitory cell block. This too was placed under control shortly afterward.
