

Many Attend
MWA Memorial

Memorial services of the Modern Woodmen of America, conducted Sunday at the Spring Bank church and cemetery, Yellowbud, were largely attended. Speaker was the Rev. S. S. Davis of Ashland.

Vocal numbers were provided by the community choir under the direction of Oscar Reynolds, who also acted as soloist. Miss Laura Jean Reynolds was the pianist.

Instrumental music was furnished by the Adelphi band.

Prior to the service at Yellowbud, similar services were conducted at Brown's Chapel and Williamsport cemetery.

In all 32 graves were decorated by members of the order, according to Walter Derexson, secretary of Camp 10323, M. W. A., Yellowbud.
