W. B. A. MEETING

At the meeting of the W. B. A. on Monday evening, held in the O. S. B. Temple, final arrangements were made to attend the state convention of the W. B. A. which will be held next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in Toledo, to which about 25 of the members are planning to go. The grand team of the Chillicothe Review will participate in the grand pageant which will be presented on Wednesday.

The convention will open with a banquet on Monday evening and on Tuesday and Wednesday sessions will be devoted to business. On Wednesday evening, the program will be presented in the stadium. Headquarters will be in the score house, Toledo.

It was decided to hold the annual summer camp of the review at Glenwood, August 1st to 5th, for which plans of all sorts are being made.

GIRLS LEFT FOR CAMP COOK

The Camp Fire girls and a B. G. girls packed their kits and left on Monday for Camp Cook, Walnut Branch Farm, near Blaine. The girls are in charge, and it is expected that the girls will be in the tent at various times during the two weeks the girls will be in camp, and a most enjoyable time is anticipated, among the girls who have gone to camp are Lorabelle Davidson, Jean Lerrick, Arne and Jane Tomlinson, Annette Chapman, the Chlores Manager, Louise Bergman, Louise Segal, Ellis, Dorothy and Bernice Cronk, Thelma and Bertha Cook.

COLLEGE CLUB FOOD CLUB HELDS SESSION

The fourth meeting of the College Club, 428 Pool Club was held at the home of E. Pauline Bowler on Wednesday, June 1, 1927. The meeting opened at 1:15 by Miss Bernice Elmer, vice-president, in the chair. The roll was called by Miss Elmer Bower, the secretary. During the business hour plans were made to attend the affairs and student conference to be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Chillicothe, Ohio, June 2nd and 3rd. Three very tempting dishes were prepared and served. Two visitors were present, Mrs. H. Sharp and Miss Ruth E. Croyer. We urge the parents to attend these meetings with their children.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Will Holt, near Hubert, on Tuesday, June 14. At this time the Sewing Club will be organized by Mrs. Will Holt. Miss Paul Yagis and County Agent F. W. B. Bond.

CHOOSE OFFICERS

The regular monthly meeting of the Queen Esther Circle of Trinity Church, Monday evening, with a delicious covered dish supper at 6 o'clock. One new member, Catherine Whitson was received at this time.

During the business meeting which followed, the officers for the coming year were elected as follows: president, Clara Virginia Taylor; vice president, Lillian Sheridan; recording secretary, Doris; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Swift; treasurer, Gladys Hunter.

CELEBRATED BIRTHDAYS

Mrs. Harry Gintler of 218 Elm Street entertained very delightfully Monday evening in honor of the fourteenth birthday anniversaries of her son Charles, and Geraldine Grant, Charles having had a birthday Monday, and Geraldine Tuesday.

When the young people returned from a walk, they were completely surprised to find sixteen of their friends assembled at the Gintler home. The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing old fashioned games.

At the close, delicious refreshments of sandwiches, ice cream, cake, mince, fruit bar brownies, and fruit chocolate were served at an attractively decorated table. A color scheme of pink and blue was used.
