

Kingston

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Davis and children Jane and Larry were in Marysville Friday and Saturday, where Jane and Larry visited with their grandmother while their parents attended their high school alumni banquets. On Friday night they went to Mrs. Davis' banquet at Richwood, and Saturday night, attended Mrs. Davis' banquet in Marysville. Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Davis went to Indianapolis where they attended the automobile races.

Dr. and Mrs. Hanley L. Collins of Gahanna, called on Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Patrick Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fisher and Mrs. Lillian Fisher of Columbus, were Sunday diner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kerns and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Patrick were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dearth of near Bethel, Monday.

Kingston Post 291 of the American Legion held their annual Memorial services at cemeteries in the following communities Monday morning: White Church, Adelphi, Hallsville Crouse Chapel and Bethel. In the afternoon they were at Tarlton, Meade and Kingston where the Rev. Mr. Reed of the Methodist Church in Circleville was speaker. Music was furnished by the Adelphi Band.

Following the ceremonies, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to Mr. Reed, members of the band and Legionnaires at the Legion Home.

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Wed, Mar 20, 2019