

CIRCLEVILLE HERALD
Monday, June 9, 1980

Washington bound

The Adelphi Band boarded two charter buses in the village early today and headed for Washington, D. C., where they will perform 9 a.m. Tuesday on the White House lawn. They are scheduled for an afternoon performance in Arlington, Va., also. Among the 24 band members going are, from the left: Gene Gildersleeve, a veteran of 53 years with the band; Ed Bennett, Hugh Clark, Curtis (Dave) Hinton, Tom Pardin, Herman (Bill) Hinton and George Wamsley. The Hinton Brothers, Dave and Bill, have been band members for 56 years and serve as managers of the organization.