

last month.

Queen

(Continued from Page 1)

10 a.m., Class D at 1 p.m. and Class C at 5 p.m.; a youth horseshow at 2 p.m. and open class horseshow at 5 p.m.; a cake decorating demonstration at 3 p.m.; flower arranging demonstration at 4 p.m.; concerts by the Zane Trace Junior High band at 5 p.m., Adelphi Community band at 6:30 p.m. and community choir at 7:30 p.m.

Climaxing Saturday activities will be a country and western square dance at 9 p.m.

Sunday activities open with a community church service at 8 a.m. followed by the second part of the open class horseshow.

Class B horseshoe pitching starts at noon on Sunday and the festival activities close with the 3 p.m. Class A horseshoe pitch.

Carter Amusements will provide rides for the festival.

There will also be game booths, a country store and a food stand.

Kiddie Crafts will be a new Saturday feature. Children will be able to participate in finger painting and other crafts during the afternoon.

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Wed, Mar 20, 2019