

Laurelville festival opens Tuesday

The streets of Laurelville will come to life Tuesday evening with the sounds and activities of the Laurelville Firemen's Old Time Festival.

The festival will open at 5 p.m. with a fish fry and will continue through Saturday with amusement rides and games, antique fire truck rides, crafts, free entertainment and a fish fry each night.

The Laurelville Marching Majorettes will perform Tuesday evening, followed by a gospel concert featuring the Royalaltes at 8 p.m.

Other major events during the festival include the Little Miss and Mister contests, the Junior Miss and Mister and the Miss Old Time Festival, a hot air balloon ascension, country music shows, a rock concert and dance and square dancing.

The festival parade will be at 6 p.m. Saturday with Woody Hayes as the grand marshal.
