

CLUBS

Misson Walker, of Clarkburg, Mr. and Mrs. James Thacker and children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lawrence and Mrs. Herman Hoffman of Clarkburg, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thacker and Mrs. James Albert of Clarkburg, Mr. Robert Thacker of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley West and children, Wesley, Albert, Donald, Harold and Miss Eliza Staffer of Chillicothe.

MARY MARTHA PICNIC
The Mary Martha club will hold their annual picnic in the city park, Wednesday, July 22.

TO FRIENDSHIP MEET
Among those from this city who will attend the twenty-first annual convention of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity to be held in Louisville, Ky., starting Sunday, July 19, and lasting three days are: William H. Young, Drummond, Owen, Hayes, Albert, J. W. Corcoran, Paul Marshall, Major Smith and Frank O'Connell.

KEY TOES HOME
Mr. Walter A. Vorhis, pastor of Walnut street church, has returned from a trip to Washington D. C. and will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning. Mrs. Vorhis and the boys remained in Washington D. C. Mr. Vorhis plans to return for them the first of next month. The subject of the sermon of next Sunday morning is, "How to Run the Metal."

A DINNER PARTY
Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Fisher and daughter of Walnut Valley entertained at an elaborate dinner Wednesday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wansley and son of Washington D. C.

There were four generations present.

Those who enjoyed the affair were Mrs. V. E. Wansley, mother of the honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Danks and son, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Thacker and son, Miss Helen Wansley and Mr. Robert Calver, all of Chillicothe; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gilmer and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fisher and son, Earl, and honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wansley and son.

MRS. PERPLE TO SING
Mrs. Harry Perple of Akron, O., who is in the northern part of the state is widely known and appreciated as an unusually talented singer, will be present at the Sunday school of Bourneville Church. Those present will have an irrefragable opportunity to hear this well-known singer, since she has arranged to present a solo there Sunday morning.

Mrs. Perple is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Phil Butler, her sister, of Chillicothe, and on Sunday will be the guest of Mrs. Delno Butler, of Bourneville.

The Bourneville Church is indeed fortunate to obtain such a glimpse of Mrs. Perple, and a large attendance is expected to greet her Sunday morning.

MRS. HERMAN HOFFERS
Two tables of bridge were set up Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Hoffman of West Fifth street when the entertained members of the club. After an interesting round of play, trophies were awarded Miss Edith Fisher and Miss Beatrice Daler.

Dance and cooling refreshments were served after the awarding of trophies. Miss Dorothy Gallagher of North High street will be hostess to the club in two weeks.

MASSEVILLE AID SOCIETY
Members of the Aid Society of Masseville church met at the home of Mrs. Edith Walker, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Albert led the devotion and during the business session plans were made to sponsor a fish fry at the Mason Pool, Thursday, July 22. Mrs. Walker asked the members at a long table, and served delicious home made ice cream, cake and bread to the following: Mrs. and Mrs. H. H. Albert and son, Albert; Mrs. Bernard Lumbuck and daughter; Mrs. Burtal Lumbuck and daughter; Mrs. Margaret McChesie, Mrs. Essner Hill, Mrs. Mrs. Lulu Rice, Mrs. H. H. Hudson, Mrs. Ada Shuck, Mrs. Ada Green, Mrs. Alberta Hatfield and Mrs. Edith Walker and son.

Mrs. Maud McChesie will entertain the society at her home next night on September 3.

HERE AND THERE

Mrs. Bernice Pullerton and son, William H. of Cleveland, who have been visiting Mrs. William Story of Hickory street, have returned to their home in Cleveland.

Mrs. Burtal Lumbuck and daughter have left to spend the summer in southern France. They will sail from New York.

Miss Dorothy Hyde of East Fifth street left Thursday for an indefinite stay in England, where she will be engaged in study. She will sail from New York on the S. S. Baltic, and will also visit Paris where her aunt, Mrs. Raymond Hatfield of Cincinnati is spending the summer.

Following a two-week motor trip in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hart have returned to their home in Gray Park.

Miss Marietta Gilmore of Portsmouth, Ohio, will spend the week-end in this city, the guest of Miss Geneva Hart of East Main street.

Dr. J. E. Boller will return Friday evening from Youngstown, where he has been operating the past few days attending the practical class.

Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Patterson and two children of the Veterans Burial Hospital left Thursday for a trip through the east, among the interesting places, they will visit Maine, New Hampshire and Rhode Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Robinson, of West Second street, left on Thursday for a motor trip to Grand, Mich.

Mrs. Harry Perple of Akron, O., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Phil Butler of South Palm street. Mrs. Butler is the sister of Mrs. Perple.

Mrs. Clyde Scott of Columbus spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hughes of the Clifton apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ott of East Main street visited friends in Frankfort Thursday.

Mrs. Ada Cory of Washington D. C. is spending the week with Mrs. Mary McAdams of East Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olsaker, son and daughter, Everett, Lucille of near Conodry and Miss Genevieve Perple of Massillon returned home Monday after a week visit in West Virginia.

Miss E. Kern returns today from attending the convalescence of the Myrtle Hotel in Cleveland.

HARD TIMES GAMBLERS
MISS BIG LOTTERY PRIZE

CONSERVATION Club (affiliated with the University of Georgetown) lottery.

A recent drawing revealed about $20,000 worth of tickets sold, among them the number for first prize of $10,000.

The university officials did not verify half so much about the unsold tickets as about the unsold tickets. They feared the public would shy further from ticket purchases.

Fulfills Ambition

MISS RHODE

The day of the drawing was held in the hall of the Conservation Club. The drawing was held in the hall of the Conservation Club. The drawing was held in the hall of the Conservation Club.

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Fri, Oct 30, 2020