Laurelville festival begins Wednesday

The Fireman's Old Time Festival kicks off Wednesday for a four-day run in the streets of Laurelville.

The festival, sponsored by the Laurelville Volunteer Fire Department, includes a fish fry each day, midway rides, an arts and crafts show in the town building and live musical entertainment.

Wednesday's highlights include a Little Miss and Mr. Old Time Festival contest at 7:30 p.m. On Thursday, the Miss Old Time Festival queen contest gets under way at 7:30 p.m.

A baby contest at 6 p.m. is set for Friday. Saturday's lineup includes marching corps competition at 1 p.m., the Adelphi Community Band at 4:30, the grand parade at 6, square dancing at 8, raffle drawings at 9 and more square dancing at 9:30.
