

Music to fit any taste

By JILL ZEGER
Gazette Staff Writer

This Sunday, you can enjoy the Columbus Symphony Orchestra free in the park.

The orchestra will perform at 7 p.m. It will be preceded by the Great Seal Band at 3 p.m. and The School of Dance at 6:30 p.m.

But if an entire show of rhythm, blues and jazz is more to your taste, you can take in the bands at the Majestic Theatre Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Or if you like a marching band, The Adelphi Band performs Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Columbus at the Ohio Village.

And if you just want to hang tough, the "Toughman-Toughwoman Contest" is at the Ross County Fairgrounds Friday and Saturday. This is a amateur only contest with locals slugging it out. The doors open at 7 p.m. with the fights beginning at 8 p.m. Tickets are $9 general admission and $12 ringside. Advance tickets can be purchased at WFCB-FM, WKKJ-FM, Street Beat CD's and Tapes and Eagle's Nest Sporting Goods.

Magic Show

The Chillicothe Cavalier Booster Club presents its annual magic show Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at Smith Junior High School. The show stars "The Amazing Lonnie and Co.," an act which has performed at Red, White and Boom in Columbus and shows in Baltimore and other cities. Also performing is Dr. Robert Escher, president of the Louisville Magic Club with Sandy Hodgkiss. Special price for advance tickets. Call 774-1087.

Looking for a few good men

The Minor Chords are looking for men who like to sing barbershop quartet harmonies. The Circleville group will hold a free open house/concert at the Majestic Theatre Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. to recruit new members and to perform for all who like their music. Local residents Ray Storts, Lee Stewart, Chuck Haynes and Dale Fox are members of the group.

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Sat, Mar 23, 2019